CORAM: A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
16.6.2007

PC:

Aggrieved by termination of service the present petitioner/complainant filed ULP complaint before the First Labour Court, Thane. The respondent objected to the territorial jurisdiction of Thane Court by categorically contending that from September, 1996 till date of termination i.e. 24.4.97 the complainant had worked at Silvassa and his services were terminated from Silvassa. Labour Court so also the Industrial Court in revision, have concurred in holding that the Labour Court at Thane did not have jurisdiction to deal with the complaint as the case of action has arisen at Silvassa. Perusal of the complaint reveals that there is not even an averment made in the complaint in relation to cause of action arising within the territorial jurisdiction of the Labour Court, Thane. Both the Courts have held that the Labour Court, Thane has no jurisdiction to deal with the complaint and hence rejected the complaint. Perused the order, same does not suffer from any illegality. Hence no interference is called for in exercise of writ jurisdiction. Writ petition is summarily dismissed.
